Second Batch of FA-50s arrive

Two (2) new FA-50PH Light Combat Fighter Aircraft with multi-role capabilities, the second batch of FA-50PH planes acquired from Korea Aerospace Industries for the modernization of the Philippine Air Force, arrived at Haribon Hangar, Air Force City, Clark Air Base, Pampanga on Dec. 1, 2016. Following the first two FA-50PH delivered in November 2015, the arrival of the new aircrafts with tail number 003 and 004 will further augment the capabilities of the PAF. To complete the acquisition of 12 FA-50PH, the eight remaining FA-50s will be arriving in the Philippines in the coming months.

Defense Secretary Delfin N. Lorenzana and Armed Forces of the Philippines Chief of Staff, General Ricardo Visaya give the thumbs-up for the two (2) new FA-50PH during the arrival ceremony for FA-PH 003 and 004 at Haribon Hangar, Air Force City, Clark Air Base, Pampanga on Dec. 1, 2016.

Defense Secretary Delfin N. Lorenzana and AFP Chief of Staff General Ricardo Visaya point to their signatures on one of the two (2) new FA-50PH during the arrival ceremony for FA-PH 003 and 004 at Haribon Hangar, Air Force City, Clark Air Base, Pampanga on Dec. 1, 2016. The two officials signed the aircraft during their visit to South Korea.
