Air Force gets two new Cessna aircraft

Defense Secretary Delfin N. Lorenzana led the ceremonial pouring of champagne during the turn-over ceremony of two Cessna C-208B Grand Caravan ISR (Intelligence Surveillance Reconnaissance) Aircraft that were delivered by the US Government on July 27, 2017 at Col. Jesus Villamor Air Base in Pasay City. Secretary Lorenzana highlighted the importance of the aircraft in the armed forces' ground, air and naval operations, as well as in humanitarian assistance and disaster response (HADR). He added that the planes will likewise be working for the different departments of the government. ###

Defense Secretary Delfin N. Lorenzana received the document from US Ambassador Sung Y. Kim for two Cessna C-208B Grand Caravan ISR (Intelligence Surveillance Reconnaissance) Aircraft that were delivered by the US Government on July 27, 2017 at Col. Jesus Villamor Air Base in Pasay City. Secretary Lorenzana expressed gratitude to the US and said that the assistance will go a long way towards sustaining what the Philippine government has gained in terms of the nation's security and safety. ###
