DND Statement on PRRD's directive that there will be no more peace talks with the CPP-NPA-NDF

The President has had enough of the Communist movement's penchant for double-talk and continued acts of atrocities against the Filipino people. In keeping with the President's guidance, the DND and AFP will continue to vigorously pursue operations against their armed components.

We strongly suggest to the NPA to lay down their arms, surrender, return to society and be part of the real change espoused by the national leadership.
