

Republika ng Pilipinas
Republic of the Philippines
Kagawaran ng Tanggulang Pambansa
Department of National Defense

28 APR 2015

MEMORANDUM to –

Chiefs of Offices, DND Proper
Heads of Bureaus/Agencies, DND

SUBJECT: Training Offers under the Australian Defence Cooperation Program for TY 2015 - 2016

This pertains to the Joint Training Program Offers under the Australian Defence Cooperation Program for Training Year (TY) 2015 – 2016 for the Department of National Defense (DND) to wit:

TY 2015

COURSE	TRAVEL DATES	PLACE	ADFELPS PROFILE	NO. OF SLOTS	TARGET PARTICIPANTS / COURSE DESCRIPTION	DEADLINE OF SUBMISSION TO DND
Emergency Management Seminar (Tier 1)	TBC October 2015	Canberra (TBA)	S – 6 L – 6 R – 6 W - 5	One (1)  (OCD /AFP)	SG-11 to SG-24  (Defence Civilians that have a current or impending role or responsibility for Emergency Management within their service /agency. The course is an introductory course aimed to give the basic understanding of the emergency concepts and principles. It provides an understanding of emergency concepts and principles It provides an	29 May 2015 understanding of how agencies work how they respond and recover in an emergency situation / disaster including response management, coordination, planning evacuation management and risk management)

Health Aspects of Disaster Course	28 November to 11 December 2015	Brisbane	S - 6 L - 6 R - 6 W - 6	One (1) (VMC /AFP)	SG-18 to SG-24  (Defense Civilians who have a current or impending role involved in the health aspects of disaster. The course has significant inputs from academic, health, military, civilian, and non-government organizations in both case studies of particular disasters and important themes in health aspects of disasters. The short course covers thematic areas such as: types, phases and effects of disasters on health , nutrition and mortality; public health, medical responses and disaster preparedness; infectious disease and nutritional emergencies, terrorism, and trauma management; chemical, biological, and radiological incidents; pandemic	31 July 2015

